

Nabeel Abdulaziz Rashid Al-Tararweh

Chief Executive Officer – Mergers & Acquisitions and Strategic Deals

Mr. Nabil Al-Tarrarwa is regarded as one of the leading executive and strategic figures in the field of major transaction management, mergers and acquisitions, and high-level negotiations. He brings over three decades of extensive experience spanning government service, executive leadership, and corporate management, with a distinguished track record in relationship building, leading complex negotiations, and closing highly sensitive transactions at both local and international levels.

Mr. Al-Tarrarwa currently serves as Head of the Mergers & Acquisitions and Transactions Department at Taher Legal Group, where he leads specialized teams in deal structuring, negotiation management, cross-disciplinary coordination, and strategic decision support for the Group's clients, including major corporations, investors, and high-net-worth families.

Executive and Leadership Experience:

Mr. Al-Tarrarwa possesses deep experience working closely with senior decision-makers and top leadership. He served as Director of the Office of a Member of Parliament at the Kuwaiti National Assembly for several parliamentary terms, which provided him with a precise understanding of the legislative, political, and regulatory environment, as well as effective stakeholder engagement. He also held the position of Secretary to a Minister of State for many years, working at the heart of governmental decision-making, managing strategic files, and coordinating among official entities. Additionally, he served as Private Secretary to His Highness Sheikh Saad Al-Abdullah Al-Salem Al-Sabah (may he rest in peace), a role reflecting the highest levels of trust, competence, and institutional discipline. Later, he became Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of a commercial company for ten years, leading growth initiatives, expansion strategies, and operational restructuring.

Mr. Al-Tarrarwa's expertise focuses on:

leading complex strategic transactions from deal origination through to closing, negotiating with major local and international companies on commercial agreements, partnerships, and acquisitions, and managing the balance between legal, commercial, political, and reputational dimensions of transactions. He provides executive advisory support to senior management and decision-makers during sensitive negotiation phases and is highly experienced in crisis management and handling high-risk matters, drawing on his extensive governmental and executive background.

Value Added to Taher Legal Group Clients:

What distinguishes Mr. Nabil Al-Tarrarwa is his rare ability to combine indirect legal acumen, strong political awareness, and hands-on executive capability, making his involvement decisive in high-value mergers and acquisitions, multi-party negotiations, transactions requiring a deep understanding of local and regional contexts, and managing relationships with governmental entities, partners, and investors.

Academic Qualifications and Background:

Mr. Al-Tarrarwa holds a bachelor's degree in science (Physics) from Kuwait University, reflecting an analytical and logical approach to complex matters. He has obtained specialized certifications in organizational structuring and professional management in cooperation with the Ministry of Awqaf and Islamic Affairs and the Embassy of Japan and received a Certificate of Appreciation in Crisis Management during the Iraqi invasion of the State of Kuwait.

Languages:

Arabic

Professional Vision:

Mr. Al-Tarrarwa believes that successful transactions are not built on numbers alone, but on understanding people, timing, power dynamics, and the cultivation of long-term trust. Based on this philosophy, he works within Taher Legal Group to deliver an integrated transaction model that combines legal expertise, strategic insight, and smart execution in accordance with the highest international standards.